Aims of TIPI Science Day

The Technology Innovation Platform of IFOAM – Organics International (TIPI) is a research action network, which was established at the TIPI Member Assembly on February 15, 2013 during BIOFACH, the World Organic Trade Fair, at NürnbergMesse, City of Nuernberg, Germany. The secretariat is hosted by The Research Institute of Organic Agriculture (FiBL) of Switzerland.

There are two aims for planned meeting:

1. Set up an organic technology and innovation network in farming: TIPI China group.
2. Bridge the understanding, communications and co-operations for Chinese and the TIPI international members in research, innovation and technology transfer.

Topics of Forum

- Organic Agricultural Developmental Policy & Strategy
- Research & Innovation
